

DARTBOARD RALLY 2026

IF YOU HAVE QUESTIONS OR CONCERNS, CALL PAUL AT 214-250-1340

THE RALLY STARTS AT 5:30 AM Eastern from the parking lot of the Hilton Cincinnati Airport, 7373 Turfway Rd, Florence, KY 41042. You must be back and checked in by 5:30 PM Eastern back at the hotel parking. After 5:30 PM, you are DNF (did not finish).

RULES:

1. You must wear your helmet at all times when moving the motorcycle, even if you are Barney Rubble pedaling with your feet across the parking lot. A rider caught without their helmet on will be disqualified.
2. Do not speed. Excessive speeding will result in serious point losses or disqualification.
3. Your entire flag must be in EVERY PICTURE. If it says motorcycle required in picture, every portion must be visible of the motorcycle. Even a sliver of the front fairing or rear exhaust touching the edge of the picture and it will be denied.
4. Do not spend forever trying to find a bonus. Call staff if you cannot find it. If it's missing, just take a picture of where it should be. If a gate is locked, take a picture of the gate and hope that another rider does not find another way to the bonus. There are ZERO tricks in this rally. We want you to ride to fun places and see cool things. THAT'S IT. Use common sense. If the bonus is not there or the coordinates are slightly off, it's not intentional. If it's not readily apparent where the bonus is, call me.
5. There may be some dirt roads but we were careful not to include what would amount to a 'goat trail'. If you end up in really difficult surfaces (deep sand or rock, other very poor road conditions), turn around. Let us know. We might give you the bonus.
6. Make every effort to replicate the reference photo with regard to the angle from the bonus and distance. Stand where the person stood who took the picture. If this places you in an unsafe place, go to the closest safe vantage point and take a picture there.
7. There is one bonus you can stop in the road (DB006). Still, use caution. Otherwise, the other bonuses should have safe parking nearby. Use it. Riders taking pictures from the roadway will have bonuses denied. Get off the bike.
8. If you lose your flag, you lose half your points and you must do selfie pics with bonus in background for remainder of the rally.
9. You do not have to use the bonus claim form but if you do not use it, you will not be allowed to dispute any denied bonuses.

SCORING APP:

You must use the scoring app. Because order of bonuses does not matter in this rally, the sequence number is not overly important. If you make a mistake on a bonus, this new system does allow you to resubmit but let us know if you plan on doing that. The system is new and I want to make sure there are no issues.

TRACKING:

The app does require tracking. You must allow all requests from the app. It will ask for pictures, library and location. Answer 'while using app' or whatever similar request your phone makes. If you put 'this one time' or 'never', the app will not work and you will not be scored. The app will only track during the rally but you must turn it on at the beginning and off at the end. The tracking is for rider safety purposes and helping to make sure you're at the correct bonus from what you are submitting.

BLUE HAIR BINGO CLUB

Long before there were movie theaters, shopping centers, sports bars or a television glowing in every living room, there wasn't a whole hell of a lot to do on a Saturday night in rural America.

Families lived miles apart. Days were spent tending crops, livestock, homes and children, and a trip into town wasn't necessarily something you did because you were bored. If a community wanted to be a community, it needed somewhere to gather.

Very often, that somewhere was the local church.

Across pioneer America, churches and meeting houses became far more than places of Sunday worship. They were where neighbors caught up with neighbors, newcomers were introduced, meals were shared, courtships began, families in need received help, and people who had spent the week scattered across miles of countryside finally sat together under one roof.

As towns grew, the tradition remained. There were church suppers, socials, picnics, fundraisers—and eventually, Bingo Night.

And somewhere along the way, generations of young pioneer women became mothers, then grandmothers, then little old ladies sitting in a church hall with a stack of cards, a dauber in one hand and absolutely no patience for anybody who couldn't hear B-12 the first time it was called.

So, in honor of all those little rural churches, pioneer meeting places and formidable blue-haired ladies who kept their communities together:

Welcome to the Blue Hair Bingo Club.

Your card contains bonus locations scattered throughout the rally. Claim five bonuses forming a straight line horizontally, vertically or diagonally and yell BINGO!—figuratively, please. Nobody at the scoring table needs that.

The center space is FREE.

Complete any Bingo on the Blue Hair Bingo card and earn 1,000 bonus points.

Now grab your dauber and get moving.

Those ladies have been waiting all week for Bingo Night.

HOW RALLY SCORING AND THE BINGO CARDS WORK

Bonus locations are scattered throughout the rally, with each bonus worth the number of points listed in this rallybook. In addition to those individual bonus points, riders have the opportunity to earn additional points by completing a Bingo on any of the three Bingo cards.

A Bingo consists of five completed bonus locations in a straight line — any horizontal row, vertical column, or either of the two diagonals. The center FREE space counts automatically toward any Bingo line that passes through it.

Each of the three cards carries a different point value and has been designed with a different level of difficulty. As the value of the card increases, so does the challenge of assembling a successful Bingo.

You may earn only one Bingo from each card, regardless of how many completed lines you ultimately create on that card. It is possible, however, to earn a Bingo on more than one card. Successfully complete all three, and you will receive the bonus points from all three cards.

You do not need to claim a Bingo. The scoring system will automatically evaluate your successfully claimed bonuses and award the appropriate Bingo points when you have completed a qualifying line. Order of bonuses does not matter.

Bonuses appearing on the Bingo cards are still ordinary rally bonuses and retain their individual point values. In other words, completing one of those locations earns its normal bonus points and may help build a line toward the additional Bingo award.

The Meal Bonus is the only rally bonus that does not contribute toward any Bingo card. Requirements for that bonus are explained separately on the Meal Bonus page.

TO BE A DARTBOARD RALLY FINISHER, YOU MUST SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETE AT LEAST ONE BINGO FROM ANY OF THE THREE BINGO CARDS.

MEAL BONUS — XEAT1

3,000 Points of Rest, Relaxation & Hopefully Air Conditioning

A 12-hour rally can feel more like a sprint than a marathon, so I'm not going to saddle you with the traditional 45-minute meal bonus. We're keeping this one short and simple:

Twenty minutes.

When you arrive at your chosen meal location and come to a stop in the parking lot, open XEAT1 in the Rider App and start the timer.

Go inside. Sit down. Order a meal. Take a photograph showing your rally flag and your meal BEFORE you eat it.

When at least 20 minutes have elapsed, stop the timer and submit the bonus. Do not leave the meal location before the 20-minute timer has been completed.

Presumably, somewhere during all of this, you've actually eaten the meal you bought.

SO...WHAT IS A MEAL?

We're not going to write a federal regulation defining lunch. Use some common sense.

What it is NOT:

A house salad. A slice of pie or cake. A singular glass of iced tea. Or some clever combination of the above that you intend to argue constitutes dinner.

What it IS:

A BLT and fries. A couple of street tacos. The Lumberjack Breakfast that comes on two plates because apparently one plate wasn't structurally capable of supporting it.

What it could also be:

A BBQ sandwich — but not from Arby's or Buc-ee's.

A hamburger from Chili's — but not a hamburger from McDonald's. (Yuck.)

Raising Cane's chicken fingers — but not those dried-out, disgusting chicken fingers rotating beneath a heat lamp at the Allsup's gas station.

You catch my drift?

FIND THE RIGHT PLACE

You're going to spend the day riding around northern Kentucky and passing through a lot of small towns. Find the little country diner with all the pickup trucks parked out front.

There should be approximately a two-dogs-to-five-trucks ratio in the parking lot.

Eat there.

I bet their burger is excellent. I bet their pie is excellent, too. Maybe have both and wash them down with a glass of iced tea. The point of this bonus is to stop riding for 20 minutes, sit down, eat an actual meal and take a short break. It is not an invitation to find the fastest possible collection of calories at a drive-thru window.

If you're considering a typical fast-food restaurant, don't take the risk. If you're unsure whether a particular place or meal qualifies, ask me.

And if you procrastinate until five minutes before the end of the Meal Bonus availability window and discover the only thing within 20 miles is a Burger King attached to a Love's Truck Stop, that's unfortunate.

It will be denied.

The Meal Bonus is worth 3,000 points. It is not mandatory.

But it's worth a bunch of points, and the requirements aren't particularly difficult. If you decide to play games with the definition of the word meal, you may discover that your clever interpretation was worth exactly:

ZERO POINTS.

Eat something good. Take 20 minutes. Enjoy the air conditioning.

Then get back on the motorcycle.

AVAILABILITY: Clock start must be between 10:30a and 12:30p.
